BUSHIDO SIXTEEN

A story about 16 years old school girls who practice Kendo, a Japanese martial art which descended from "Bushido" (swordsmanship) of samurai era. Kaori is a Kendo champion at junior high school level, but unexpectedly loses in the final to Sanae who plays Kendo more for fun than for winning. Six months later, they meet again when they become students of the Toso Academy Girls High School. Kaori holds a grudge, setting up a rivalry that bleeds over into high school, although Sanae doesn't particularly care about it.

Swing Girls

At a rural girls high school in northern Japan, remedial math classes are being held during the summer break. Looking for a way out, Tomoko and her classmates volunteer to deliver lunches to the school's brass band. The band, however, got food poisoned with the lunches. Tomoko and her companions seize the chance to ditch summer school as replacement musicians. They gradually succumb to the infectious rhythms of big band jazz and start to take the music seriously. Just as they are about to perform in public for the first time, the band members they replaced return and they are sidelined.
