

HANDOVER CEREMONY OF A NEW SCHOOL BUILDING TO THE TOBIAS HAINYEKO PRIMARY SCHOOL IN TOBIAS HAINYEKO CONSTITUENCY, KHOMAS REGION. (22nd NOVEMBER, 2018)

Ambassador welcomed with traditional cultural dance and songs by school learners with national flags

Ambassador and Hon. Ms Anna Nghipondoka, Deputy Minister of Education, Arts & Culture celebrated the successful completion of the new school block funded by the Government of Japan.

The venue was packed with learners, teachers, and neighbouring school principals.

H.E. Mr. Hideaki Harada, Ambassador of Japan

Hon. Ms Anna Nghipondoka, Deputy Minister of Education, Arts & Culture

Hon. Ms Rosalia Sibya Mwashekele, Special Advisor to the Governor of the Khomas Region

HANDOVER CEREMONY OF A NEW SCHOOL BUILDING TO THE TOBIAS HAINYEKO PRIMARY SCHOOL IN TOBIAS HAINYEKO CONSTITUENCY, KHOMAS REGION. (22nd NOVEMBER, 2018)

School learners entertained the guests with traditional cultural dance and songs.

Ribbon Cutting of the new school block by H.E. Hideaki Harada, Ambassador of Japan, and Hon. Anna Nghipondoka, Deputy Minister of Education, Arts and Culture.

Grade 1 learners rushing into a newly built classroom.

The classrooms ready for occupation.

As a token of appreciation, a Japanese flag with a Japanese crane is painted on the school block constructed under the project, as well as a monument which represent the Japanese flag is set up nearby the block.