

HANDOVER CEREMONY OF A NEW SCHOOL BUILDING TO AUGEIKHAS PRIMARY SCHOOL IN KTUTURA EAST CONSTITUENCY, KHOMAS REGION (6th JUNE 2019)

Ambassador welcomed by school learners with Namibian and Japanese flags at the school gate

The venue was filled with learners, teachers, and community people.

Ambassador and Hon. Ms. Ester Anna-Lisa Nghipondoka, Deputy Minister of Education, Arts and Culture, at the high table

Principals and teachers who work / worked in the school were invited to present themselves.

Hon. Ms Ester Anna-Lisa Nghipondoka, Deputy Minister of Education, Arts and Culture

H.E. Mr. Hideaki Harada, Ambassador of Japan

HANDOVER CEREMONY OF A NEW SCHOOL BUILDING TO AUGEIKHAS PRIMARY SCHOOL IN KTUTURA EAST CONSTITUENCY, KHOMAS REGION (6th JUNE 2019)

School learners entertained the guests with different traditional cultural dances and songs. Hon. Deputy Minister of Education, Arts and Culture also joined the traditional dance.

Ambassador receiving gifts from the school as a token of their appreciation

Unveiling a plaque which recognizes the contribution from the people and the Government of Japan

Japanese and Namibian flags painted on the wall of the newly built block of the classrooms

The classrooms ready for use. The fully decorated classrooms attracted everyone to study in this classroom.