

Ambassador Nishimaki's presentation of the letter of credence
on 28 July 2022, at the State House in Windhoek

Ambassador Nishimaki arrives at the State House and is welcomed by Ambassador Leonard Iipumbu, Chief of Protocol.

Ambassador Nishimaki and Ambassador Leonard Iipumbu observe the hoisting of the National Flag of Japan, concurrently with the playing of the National Anthem of Japan by the band.

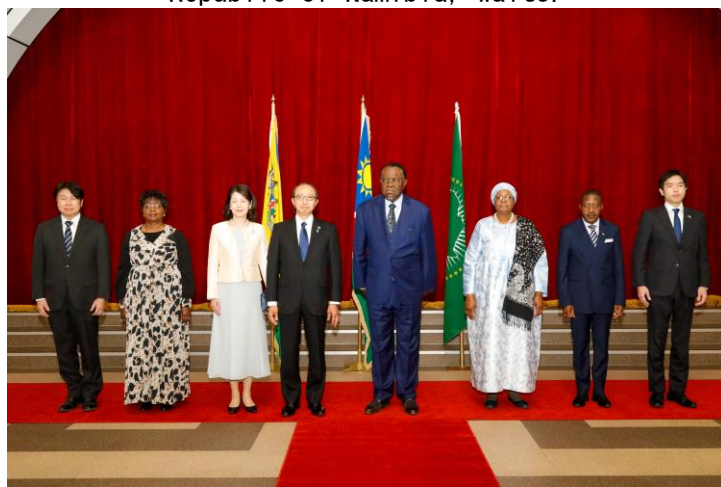

After the hoisting of the National Flag of Japan, Ambassador Nishimaki, accompanied by Amb. Leonard Iipumbu, walks to the entrance of the State House.

Ambassador Nishimaki, with his letter of credence, arrives at the hall of the State House, where H.E. Dr. Hage G. Geingob, President of the Republic of Namibia, waits.

Ambassador Nishimaki presents his letter of credence to H.E. Dr. Geingob.

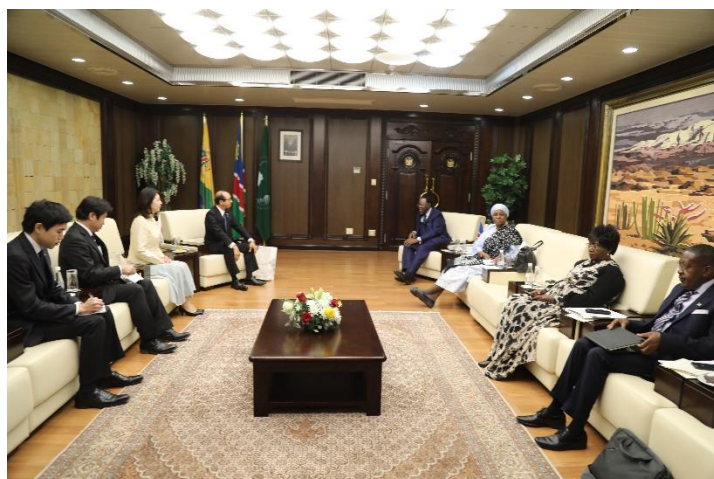

Group Photo: Ambassador Nishimaki and his spouse (third and fourth from left), H.E. Dr. Geingob (fourth from right), Hon. Netumbo Nandi-Ndaitwah, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of International Relations and Cooperation (third from right), with accompanying officials from the Namibian Government and members of the Embassy of Japan.

Ambassador Nishimaki' s presentation of the letter of credence
on 28 July 2022, at the State House in Windhoek

H.E. Dr. Geingob proposes a toast to Ambassador Nishimaki and the friendship between the two countries.

After the Ceremony, a meeting was held between Ambassador Nishimaki and H.E. Dr. Geingob to exchange views on good bilateral relations.

After the meeting with H.E. Dr. Geingob, Ambassador Nishimaki writes a message to the guest book.