

Japanese Film Festival at University of Namibia (14-16 March 2023)

2023/3/17

On 14-16 March 2023, Embassy of Japan, Cultural Section, held a Japanese Film Festival at Main Campus of University of Namibia (UNAM). In collaboration with UNAM and Japan Foundation, the total of three movies, "Every Day a Good Day", "Dad's Lunch Box" and "I Wish" were played. During the Film Festival, there was also a cultural stand, aimed at introducing Japanese culture as well as Japanese Government Scholarship, which the Embassy informed Namibian students to apply for every year.

On the opening night, 14th of March, Ambassador Nishimaki gave remarks, introducing the three movies, and Ms. Alina Uusiku, Researcher and a Grant Management Coordinator at UNAM and former MEXT scholarship student, shared her full experience regarding the scholarship from the application process and her stay in Japan to the students attending the movie nights.

Many students commented, that their interests toward Japanese Culture, Japanese important Values and Lifestyles got enhanced and some students showed wishes to study in Japan.

Remarks by Ms. Uusiku

Remarks by Ambassador Nishimaki