

Meeting with Ambassador Wilfried Emvula, former Permanent Representative of Namibia to the United Nation (25 April 2023)

2023/4/25

On 25 April 2023, Ambassador Nishimaki invited Ambassador Emvula, former Permanent Representative of Namibia to the United Nations, to his official residence to exchange views on Japan-Namibia relations.

During the meeting, Ambassador Nishimaki briefed Ambassador Emvula on Japanese Official Development Assistance (ODA) to Namibia including the Grant Assistance for Grass-Roots Human Security Projects(GGP) program and activities of Japan Overseas Cooperation Volunteers(JOCVs) dispatched by Japan International Cooperation Agency(JICA).

Ambassador Emvula explained his personal views on UNSC reform, Namibia's education and unemployment problems. A lively exchange of views was held on the future development of Japan-Namibia relations, particularly in the area of development cooperation.
