On December 6, 2023, Ambassador Nishimaki received a courtesy call from Mr. Samwel Kweku Ocran, new incoming UNICEF Representative in Namibia. Mr. Ocran expressed his appreciation for Japan's support to UNICEF, especially for the Support for Cold Chain Strengthening in response to COVID-19 pandemic in Namibia in FY2021, and requested further strengthening of cooperation between Japan and UNICEF. Ambassador Nishimaki explained that the Embassy of Japan in Namibia is committed to some economic cooperation for building Namibia's future, especially in the field of education, and discussed possible cooperation with the UN agencies.
