

On the 8th and 9th of March, the Japanese Embassy in collaboration with the University of Namibia (UNAM) organized “Japanese Film Nights” at Neudamm campus of UNAM.

The Films showed during the two nights, were two block bursters from Japan; “Where I belong” & “Key of Life”, featuring very well-known Japanese film figures.

Ambassador Nishimaki on the first night of the film, encouraged students to watch and enjoy the film and to participate in the scholarship program that the Embassy offers.

Since this was a first “Japanese Film Nights” at the campus, there was a huge number of attendance of around 110 students. After the screenings, students indicated that their interest toward Japan has increased by participating in the film night.

JAPANESE FILM NIGHTS
AT UNAM, NEUDAMM CAMPUS
Date: 08 - 09 March 2024

08 March 2024 | 17:30 | Where I belong

On the run after committing a brutal mugging, a young man ends up in a small town in the mountains. He is taken in by a kind-hearted elderly lady and soon adapts to the rural life, despite his dark past not being too far behind.

09 March 2024 | 16:00 | Key of Life

Unemployed 35 year old Sakurai aspired to become an actor, but has failed miserably. He decides to end it all by killing himself, but first he goes to purify himself at a public bathhouse. While at the bathhouse, he meets the very prosperous Kondo who suffers a fall which brings on amnesia. On a whim, Sakurai switches locker keys, steals the man's belongings and decides to pass himself off as the wealthy Kondo. Sakurai is not to know that Kondo runs an illegal business which brings him into contact with some mighty annoyed yakuza gangsters.

Japanese Film Nights Poster

Remarks by Ambassador Nishimaki

Students enjoying the movies