

Exchange of opinions with Japanese officials of the UN agencies
(April 17, 2024)

2024/4/17

On April 17, 2024, Ambassador Nishimaki invited three Japanese officials working for UN agencies at his official residence. Discussions were centered around their activities. The Japanese officials who work for UNICEF, UNFPA, and FAO briefed Ambassador on their activities in their respective agencies. The Japanese government supports Japanese officials who work for UN organizations.
