

Exchange views with CEO of One Economy Foundation (18 October 2024)

2024/10/18

On 18 October 2024, Ambassador Nishimaki invited Ms. Uajorokisa Karuaihe, CEO of One Economy Foundation to his official residence to exchange views on youth education and health related matters. The Japanese Government through The United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) provided a fully equipped mobile clinic van and supported the Shoe Laundry Initiative under the project of “No One Left Behind – Building back better from COVID-19: Restoring dignity and reshaping the future for women, girls, men and boys while mitigating Gender Based Violence and negative Sexual and Reproductive Health outcomes” (FY 2022 Japan Supplementary Budget).

One Economy Foundation is a welfare organization that was established in 2015 by former First Lady Madame Monica Geingos and supports youth in Namibia through a diverse portfolio of socio-economic programs. During this meeting, the possibility of further cooperation was also discussed.
