

Japanese Film Festival at UNAM (28 March 2025)

2025/3/28

On 28 March 2025, the Japanese Film Festival was held at the University of Namibia, Neudamm Campus. After the opening speech by Ambassador Asazuma, three Japanese films were screened.

The three films shown are, “Bushido Sixteen” , which depicts high school girls who are devoted to kendo; “Kamome Diner” , which tells the story of a Japanese women opening a restaurant in Finland; and “The Lines That Define Me” , which depicts a young man who grows up through the ink-painting. “The Lines That Define Me” was particularly well received.

