

Exchange of views with the One Economy Foundation and UNFPA (9 April 2025)

On 9 April 2025, Ambassador Asazuma invited the One Economy Foundation and UNFPA as collaborating partners to his official residence to share views on previous Japan Supplementary Budget (JSB) supported project impacts and explore other avenues of mutual interest. Ambassador Asazuma expressed his gratitude to the two organizations for their cooperation in receiving the visit to the One Economy Foundation BeFree Youth Campus of Ms. Takako Suzuki, a member of the House of Representatives, who was dispatched by the Japanese government as a special envoy to attend the 35th Independence Anniversary and the Inauguration of the 5th President of the Republic of Namibia.

FLTR: Mr. Andreas Ambabi - Financial Manager (One Economy Foundation), Mrs. Chisato Asazuma - Ambassador's Spouse, Ms. Pauline Thomas -Executive Director (One Economy Foundation), Ms. Erika Goldson - Country Representative (UNFPA), Ambassador Asazuma, Ms. Uajorokisa Karuaihe - Former CEO (ONE Economy Foundation) and Mr. Takehiro Yamada (Embassy of Japan in Namibia)