

Ambassador Asazuma officiating at UNDP's JSBP Handover Ceremony at NUST (24 June 2025)

On 24 June 2025, Ambassador Asazuma delivered a speech during the handover event of UNDP's Japan Supplementary Budget project titled "Support collectively respond to the climate emergency and establish resilient development pathways for sustaining human security and green transformation" held at the Namibia University of Science and Technology (NUST). The beneficiary of the advanced modular equipment was the Namibia Energy Institute (NEI) of NUST, and the solar charged e-bikes beneficiary was the small holder peri-urban horticulture farmers of the City of Windhoek Municipality. After the ceremony, the delegation witnessed an onsite demonstration of how the modular equipment and e-bikes operate.
