

Piano concert at Ambassador's Residence by Ms. Yukako Yamano, Japanese Jazz Pianist (07 July 2025)

On 16 July 2025, a piano concert was held at the Ambassador's residence. Renowned jazz pianist Ms. Yamano was officially invited by Ambassador Asazuma. The event welcomed numerous distinguished guests, including representatives from the fields of education and the arts, diplomatic officials, and personnel of the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA).

Ms. Yamano's performance skillfully conveyed the charm of Japanese music through the piano which promotes cultural understanding and created a heartwarming space for meaningful interaction among the participants. Promoting culture through music is a powerful tool for fostering international understanding and building mutual trust which clearly showed the effectiveness of the event as a form of cultural diplomacy.

Moving forward, the Embassy's residence will continue to actively promote cultural activities that contribute to strengthening the relationship between Japan and Namibia.

Ms. Yamano and Ambassador Asazuma gave a musical performance.
