

Public Lecture by Prof. Yoichi Mine, Executive Director of JICA Ogata Sadako Research Institute, co-hosted with University of Namibia (17 February 2026)

On 17 February 2026, as the part of the FY2025 Lecturer Dispatch Program of the Government of Japan, an online public lecture was held at the Lecture Hall in the main campus of the University of Namibia. The speaker was Yoichi Mine, Executive Director of the JICA Ogata Sadako Research Institute for Peace and Development. Following his lecture on the theme “Celebrating the 36th Anniversary of Namibia’s Independence: A Japanese perspective on Collaboration for Sustainable Human Security”, active exchanges of views took place with participants on how to promote human security in Namibia and Southern Africa.
