On 26 February 2026, a collaboration performance was held at the Franco-Namibian Cultural Centre (FNCC) featuring Ms. Nishikawa Senyumeji, a Japanese classical dancer based in Frankfurt, Germany, together with OYO (Ombetja Yehinga Organization), a Namibian group dedicated to raising social awareness among young people through the arts. More than 170 people attended the event, making it a great success. The unique fusion of Japanese and Namibian cultures received enthusiastic responses from the audience.
