

Courtesy Visit to Ambassador Asazuma by Students from Columbia School of International and Public Affairs
(19 March, 2026)

On 19 March 2026, three officials from the Ministry of Finance of Japan, who are currently studying at Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs (SIPA) and visiting Namibia to conduct field research for a study, paid a courtesy call on Ambassador Asazuma. The students explained on the research being conducted at the school at the request of the Namibia Revenue Agency (NamRA), and exchanged views with Ambassador on Namibia's investment environment and the potential for economic development, particularly in the energy sector.

