

Courtesy Call to World Health Organization (31 July 2026)

On 31 July 2026, staff members of the Japanese Embassy paid a courtesy call to the World Health Organization (WHO) office at the United Nations House in Windhoek.

The two sides update each other on progress and expectations on the current Japan Supplementary Budget (JSB) funded projects, one on “Strengthening Cancer Treatment and Diagnostics” and the other on “Enhancing Health Security Project” both being implemented by WHO. In addition, the Embassy informed WHO of the personnel changes at the Embassy, and the outgoing and incoming personnel made their greetings.

(Above f.l.t.r.) Mr. Tjiho(EoJ), Dr. Takamura(EoJ), Ms. Makatane(WHO), Dr. Mihara(EoJ), Dr. Ashipala(WHO), Mr. Yamada(EoJ) and Mr. Matsukuma(EoJ).
