

Courtesy Call by Newly Arrived JICA Volunteers (11 September 2026)

On 11 September 2026, Ambassador Asazuma received a courtesy call from two newly arrived Japan Overseas Cooperation Volunteers (JOCV), Ms. Misa Hayashi and Mr. Ryohei Fujimoto.

Ms. Hayashi will be assigned to the Outjo Municipality in Kunene Region, where she will engage in community development activities aimed at improving local livelihoods, revitalizing communities, and promoting tourism. Mr. Fujimoto will be assigned to Ubasen Primary School in Omaruru, Erongo Region, where he will support mathematics education, including improving teachers' instructional skills and organizing workshops for educators.

Ambassador Asazuma expressed his expectation for their future activities and encouraged them to serve as bridges between Japan and Namibia through engagement with local communities and the promotion of Japanese culture.
